Mr. Berg is the Artistic Director for Jazz with the Greater Dallas Youth Orchestra foundation and directs the GDYO Jazz Orchestra. In the United States, you can find groups from Japan to Germany to England who have enjoyed playing his charts. His popular series of "chicken" funk tunes have sold tens of thousands of charts. Kris is the author of the popular bass method book, BASS LINES IN MINUTES, and also has big band charts published with Warner Brothers Music, Doug Beach Music, Bakers Jazz and More, Walrus Music, and Kris Berg Jazz.

FIRST JAZZ BAND – JON FADDIS

Jon Faddis was born in Oakland, California and began playing the trumpet at the age of eight, inspired by an appearance of Louis Armstrong on the Ed Sullivan Show. Three years later, his trumpet teacher, Bill Catahano (an alumnus of the Stan Kenton Band) turned Jon on to Dizzy Gillespie, with whom he subsequently appeared at the famed Jazz Workshop in San Francisco. Two days before his 18th birthday, Jon joined the Lionel Hampton Band as a featured soloist, and in the same year was invited to sit in with the Thad Jones/Mel Lewis Big Band on one of their regular Monday night sessions at the Village Vanguard. Mr. Faddis toured and recorded with this band for four years and also studied at the Manhattan School of Music during this period. By the age of 20, Jon had become widely acclaimed by the critical press; Dizzy Gillespie declared, "...he's the best ever - including me!" Since then, Jon Faddis has become known throughout the world as one of the most innovative and inspiring jazz trumpeters of our time. He has an unflinching commitment to the education of young musicians and frequently conducts clinics and master classes to help the next generation of jazz musicians.

In 1999, Jon was appointed Artist-in-Residence in the Conservatory of Music at Purchase College, State University of New York, he teaches in both the Brass and Jazz Programs.

TENOR BASS CHOIR – DR. JEFFERSON JOHNSON

Dr. Johnson is Director of Choral Activities at the University of Kentucky where he was recently named Endowed Professor of Choral Music. At UK Johnson conducts the University Chorale and Men's Chorus. He also teaches advanced choral conducting, choral methods and literature, and directs the graduate program (MM and DMA degrees) in choral music. A native of Atlanta, Johnson received the Bachelor of Music degree from the University of Georgia (magna cum laude, 1978), the Master of Music from the University of Tennessee (1981), and the Doctor of Musical Arts degree from the University of Colorado (1992), where in 2017 he was the third recipient of the "Distinguished Choral Alumnus Award." While living in Atlanta, Johnson was a member of the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra Chorus and Chamber Chorus conducted by Robert Shaw.

The UK Chorale, a select mixed choir, has toured extensively with recent performances in Paris (Cathedral of Notre Dame, Chartres Cathedral, American Cathedral, and Cathedral of La Madeleine), Washington, D.C. (Kennedy Center), the Bahamas (private performance in the Presidential Palace), and New York City (Carnegie Hall). The Chorale has collaborated with numerous artists including The King Singers, violinist Mark O'Connor, the Boston Pops Orchestra, Cantus, and acclaimed conductor/composer James Burton. In 2015 the UK Chorale became the first university choral ensemble in the world to perform the soundtrack for the ground-breaking film 2001: A Space Odyssey with music by Gyorgy Ligeti.

In 2019 Johnson was selected to conduct the TTBB Honor Choir at the ACDA National Convention in Kansas City, and in 2018 he conducted the SATB Honor Choir at the first-ever joint conference of the Central and North Central Divisions of ACDA held in Chicago. Johnson is a contributing author to several books: Rehearsing the Choir (2019), Brothers, Sing On (2014), and the soon-to-be-released Conducting Men's Choirs (2020).

He has an editorial series with Hinshaw Music and with National Music Publishers. Additionally, his article The What, Why, and How of Young Adult Male Choirs appeared in the Choral Journal in 2012. His instructional video "Ready...Set...Sing!" is published by Santa Barbara Music Publishing and has been featured at music educators' conventions from Ohio to Hawaii. In 2019 Johnson was recognized as the first Endowed Professor of Choral Music at the University of Kentucky.

TREBLE CHOIR – J. REESE NORRIS

Mr. Norris is director of choirs at Hernando Middle School and is co-founder and co-artistic director of CoroRio, both in Northwest Mississippi. Mr. Norris received degrees from Delta State University and Florida State University, and in 2005 was named Delta State University Music Alumnus of the Year. Norris was the 2017 recipient of MMEA's Music Educator of the Year, the Ernestine Ferrell Lifetime Achievement Award given by the Mississippi Chapter of ACDA, and the Delta State University Educator of the Year Award. Norris has served in several leadership capacities for state-level NAfME and ACDA, and at the division level for ACDA. Choirs under his direction have performed at Carnegie Hall, at the National Conference for Middle School Choirs, for the Alabama ACDA Summer Conference, twice for Mississippi ACDA's State Conference, twice for ACDA's Southern Division Conference, at the OAKE National Conference and at the ACDA National Conference. Norris has been honored to serve as guest clinician across the U.S.

Norris has been commissioned by children's choirs, middle schools, high schools, colleges and universities, church, and adult community choirs. Mr. Norris' compositions have been performed in all-state choirs, at ACDA Conferences, in Carnegie Hall and across the globe. His compositions and arrangements are published by Santa Barbara, Lawson Gould, Colla Voce, G. Schirmer, and MusicSpoke.

SATB CHOIR – DR. BETSY COOK WEBER

Dr. Weber is a Madison Endowed Professor of Music and Director of Choral Studies at the University of Houston Moores School of Music. She teaches a full load of coursework, oversees the large and varied choral area at the Moores School, and is also highly active internationally as a conductor, clinician, adjudicator, and lecturer.

The University of Houston Moores School Concert Chorale, which she directs, has established a reputation as one of the world's finest collegiate choirs and has been a featured choir at multiple state and national conventions. Internationally, Chorale has received acclaim at six prestigious competitions, winning or placing in every category in which they were entered. These include the Eisteddfod in Wales, Florilège Vocal in Tours, France, International Chamber Choir Competition in Marktberdorf, Germany, the Grand Prix of Nations in Magdeburg, Germany, the Bela Bartok International Choral Competition in Hungary, and the European Grand Prix in Arezzo, Italy. Judges' comments include "de luxe singing, eliciting admiration and gratitude," "wonderfully elegant and humorous," "sophisticated choir --- expertly prepared and with a finely-tuned corporate ear." She looks forward to leading Chorale to the Czech Republic in July 2020 to compete in the International Festival of Academic Choirs.

In addition to her work at the University of Houston, Dr. Weber serves as director of the Houston Symphony Chorus. Under Weber's leadership, the Houston Symphony Chorus has performed over 200 concerts consisting of repertoire as varied as Brahms' Ein Deutsches Requiem and Video Games Live. She is privileged to collaborate with some of the world's best conductors, including Andrés Orozco-Estrada, Jane Glover, Christoph Eschenbach, and Nicholas McKegan. She has led the HSC and HS Chamber Singers on two European tours to the Czech Republic in 2017 and in Poland and Germany in 2019.

In the coming year, in addition to her return to work with the Arkansas All-State, Dr. Weber looks forward to engagements in California, the Czech Republic, Hungary, Croatia, and Germany.

Dr. Weber frequently prepares singers for early music orchestras Ars Lyrica and Mercury Houston and is also routinely called upon to prepare choruses for touring shows, including Josh Groban, Andreas Bocelli, NBC's Clash of the Choirs, Telemundo's Latin Grammy's, and Star Wars in Concert.

In the summer of 2013, Weber became the 13th person and 1st woman to receive the Texas Choral Director Association's coveted Texas Chormaster Award. She holds degrees from the University of North Texas, Westminster Choir College (Princeton, NJ), and the University of Houston.

SYMPHONIC BAND – KEITH BEARDEN

Mr. Keith Bearden, Professor Emeritus, retired from Texas Tech University in May 2003 after 23 years as, director of the Goin' Band from Raiderland and Associate Director of Bands. In addition, he conducted the University Symphonic Band, the Court Jesters Basketball Band, played trumpet in the Faculty Brass Quintet, taught classes in conducting/music education, and co-directed the Texas Tech summer music camps. Professor Bearden began his teaching career at a small Texas school, Jayton, TX. After only one year of teaching, he was drafted into the military. He served his country in the USAF Academy Band and had the honor of performing as principal trumpet in the Academy concert band and brass quintet. He was also a member of the Falconaires Jazz Ensemble. Following his completion of military service, he enjoyed six more successful years of public school teaching in Albany, and at Lubbock Monterey. His bands were consistent winners in concert, marching, jazz on both state and national levels. In 1979 he was honored by Phi Beta Mu as Texas' Outstanding Young Bandmaster. In 1980 he was appointed associate director of bands and director of the Goin' Band from Raiderland* at Texas Tech University.

During his distinguished tenure at Texas Tech University, Professor Bearden was honored as Outstanding Faculty Member by Omicron Delta Kappa and Mortar Board, and in 1999 his Goin' Band from Raiderland received nation's highest award for collegiate marching bands, the Sudler Trophy, presented by the John Philip Sousa Foundation. He was honored for 40 years of association as camper, college worker, instructor, and camp director of the Texas Tech summer band and orchestra camp. Other honors include the Kappa Kappa Psi Distinguished Service to Music Medal, Texas Tech's Department of Residence Life's Professing Excellence Award, the Lubbock Independent School District's Meritorious Service Award, the Texas Tech Committed of Champions Meritorious Service Award, The Goin' Band Alumni Ken Porter Service Award, the Texas Tech Alumni Association's Distinguished Service Award, and the Texas Tech School of Music's Distinguished Alumni Award. He has also received the Texas Bandmasters Lifetime Meritorious Achievement Award. In 2013, he was inducted into the Texas Bandmasters Hall of Fame.

With a heart for helping develop the skills of young musicians, Professor Bearden remains active as a guest clinician/conductor for numerous schools as well as honor groups across the United States. He is very active as an adjudicator in both concert and marching competitions across the country. He serves as concert band and jazz ensemble adjudicator for Festival Disney in Orlando each spring. At the international level, he is a member of the board and is chair of the judge's bureau for the World Association of Marching Show Bands. International judging assignments were recently in Demark, Ireland, Hong Kong, Malaysia, Canada, Brazil, Japan, Germany, Thailand and the Philippines. He sponsored band director tours to Japan in 2014, 2016 and 2018 for school visitations and to observe teaching/rehearsal techniques.

Professor Bearden is Executive Secretary for Texas UIL Region 16. He is the immediate past president of Phi Beta Mu International Bandmasters Fraternity. He is past president of the Texas Music Adjudicators Association and the Alpha Chapter of Phi Beta Mu. Memberships include the Texas Bandmasters Association, Texas Music Educators Association, Pi Kappa Lambda, Phi Mu Alpha, and a lifetime membership in Kappa Kappa Psi. He has served as a board member of the John Philip Sousa Foundation, and has been a loyal member of the Sudler Trophy, Sudler Shield and the Sudler Legion of honor selection committees. Outside of music, Professor Bearden enjoys family, golf, camping and classic cars. His wife, June, is a retired middle school band director. They are members of the Lakeridge United Methodist Church in Lubbock. They have two sons and four grandchildren living in Lubbock and Katy.

WIND SYMPHONY – DR. GARY GREEN

Dr. Gary D. Green is Emeritus Professor of Music and Director of Bands at the Frost School of Music at the University of Miami. While teaching at the University of Miami Frost School of Music in addition to supervising all band activities, he was the conductor of the Frost Wind Ensemble, supervised all graduate conducting students in the wind and percussion area and served as the Chairman of Instrumental Performance for eighteen years. Prior to coming to Miami, Professor Green served for ten years as Director of Bands the University of Connecticut in Storrs, Connecticut. While at the University of Connecticut, Professor Green was influential in commissioning and recording new works for winds and percussion including Symphony No. 3 by David Maslanka and A Cornfield in July and the River by William Penn. Mr. Green was a public school teacher in the Pacific Northwest for 20 years prior to moving to the University of Connecticut.

During his tenure at the University of Miami, professor Green continued the commissioning and performance of important new repertoire for winds and percussion. Under his direction, the Frost Wind Ensemble has performed on two separate occasions for the convention of the American Bandmasters Association as well as twice for the national convention of the College Band Directors National Association. Recent commissions and consortia from composers include William Penn, Joel Puckett, Mason Bates, Michael Daugherty, David Maslanka, Paul Dooley, Steve Danyew, Steven Bryant, David Gillingham, James Stephenson, Christopher Theofanidis, John Harbison, James Syler, Eric Whitacre, Frank Ticheli, Thomas Sleeper, Kenneth Fuchs and others. Urban Requiem by Michael Colgrass was commissioned by the Abraham Frost Commission Series and has become a standard in the repertoire for wind ensemble. Among other new compositions written for winds and percussion was the commission for the Frost Wind Ensemble of Christopher Rouse's Wolf Rounds.

He is a member of the Florida Bandmasters Association and has served for numerous years on the Clinics Committee and the Music Committee. He is a member of the College Band Directors Association and has been elected into the American Bandmasters Association.
